SERVICES

ACCESS TO PUBLICATIONS

Databases

We can enable you to access the most important databases you need for your research. You can access these and our e-journals from anywhere on the TU campus and from home.

Collections

We have extensive collections of literature in the fields of the economic sciences, mathematics, statistics, social-science research methods, health sciences and law. We are constantly extending the number of electronic publications.

Journals

Thanks to your input we offer a high-quality journal portfolio that we are constantly updating in line with your wishes and budgetary constraints.

Book borrowing

Borrow books for 180 days on your personal library account. You may extend this once by the same period.

Purchase suggestion for books

We will also acquire new books that you need for your research. Please use the forms on our website.

ADVICE ON RESEARCH & PUBLICATION

Research support

We support you in finding literature effectively and efficiently. Our information literacy team is happy to assist and advise you.

Advice

We will be happy to enable you using reference management programs such as Citavi and EndNote and can give you helpful tips on academic writing and publishing. Our information literacy team will organize workshops for topics of your interest.
