

Information Expert Passport

Beginners level

Information literacy sub-competencies	Learning units	Learning targets	Mandatory	Mode
Defining information needs / finding info.	Efficient literature research	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Selecting appropriate research tools for research targets</li> <li>General search strategies are known and can be applied</li> <li>Classification systems are known</li> </ul>
Finding information	Understanding types of publications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Different types of publications are known</li> <li>Research tools are correctly applied according to the types of publications and research objectives</li> </ul>
	Recognizing types of publications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Literature that is published independently and dependently can be identified in a bibliography</li> </ul>
	Finding printed journals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Printed journal can be found quickly and targeted</li> </ul>
	Finding electronic journals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Electronic journals can easily be found in the different research tools</li> <li>The availability and type of licensing of electronic journals can be identified</li> <li>The full-text of articles can be found and downloaded</li> </ul>
Evaluating information	Evaluating internet sources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Internet sources can be assessed according to their trustworthiness and quality</li> </ul>
Managing and presenting information	Academic writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The basics of an academic writing style are well known</li> </ul>

Legend:

mandatory

class

e-learning unit / self-study

E-Learning-elements are available by clicking on the icon with the screen.